Purpose

Government Documents Round Table of Ohio promotes the effective use of publications issued by all levels of government by:

- * Providing a forum for the discussion of problems and concerns and for the exchange of ideas by individuals and organizations who have an interest in government information in the state of Ohio.
- * Promoting the initiation and support of programs to increase availability, access, effective use, and bibliographic control of government information issued by all levels of government.
- * Increasing communication between personnel working with government information and other library employees To contribute to the extension and improvement of the education and training of government information personnel.
- * Advocating for the development, maintenance, and expansion of levels of service for government information appropriate to user communities.

Membership

GODORT of Ohio is a statewide association for individuals who have an interest in federal and state government publications. New members are welcome.
